

An Innovative Community; Authentically Hometown

NEWS ALERT: Aaron Reinhart Named Interim Utilities Director

Assistant Director of Public Utilities has wealth of experience in Water, Wastewater

MOUNT VERNON, December 22, 2022 – Aaron Reinhart has been named the City of Mount Vernon’s Interim Utilities Director. He began his duties on Monday, Dec. 19, 2022, and also holds the title of Assistant Director of Public Utilities.

Aaron Reinhart, Interim Utilities Director

He replaces Tom Marshall, who resigned as Director of Utilities for the City at the beginning of December.

Reinhart, a native of Seneca County, has worked in waterworks utilities since the 1990s across north central Ohio, most recently as the Water Treatment Plant Manager for the Village of Crestline in Crawford County. He served as the Operations Supervisor for the City of Mansfield’s Water Treatment Plant from 2017 to 2019, and was a water and sewer operator in the Village of Lexington as well.

Reinhart is also the owner of Aaron Reinhart & Sons Woodworking, LLC, in Lexington.

In addition, Reinhart serves as the chairman of the Zoning Board of Appeals in Troy Township, Richland County, and is the presiding judge of the Richland County Board of Elections.

Aaron and his wife, Alisa, have been married for 25 years, and have three grown children, Darron, Devon and Darcie.

END

ABOUT THE CITY OF MOUNT VERNON:

The City of Mount Vernon is an innovative community with an authentic hometown feel. The City is dedicated to providing modern services with an emphasis on continual improvement, customer service and equitable laws that support our citizens and visitors, while retaining and attracting investors in our community. Home to 17,000 people, Mount Vernon is the county seat for Knox County and boasts historic buildings and districts as well as business and professional, educational and recreational opportunities through many adaptive reuses of the community’s infrastructure and spaces. The City has strong ties to higher education, with Mount Vernon Nazarene University, Kenyon College and Central Ohio Technical College operating satellite locations in the historic downtown. Located 40 miles northeast of Columbus, Mount Vernon is near the geographic center of Ohio and has connections all over the globe.

CONTACT: Todd Hill
PHONE: (740) 393-9517
DATE: December 22, 2022